Act of June 27th 1890

State of Missouri:
: ss.
County of Clay :

In the matter of the application for a pension by Woodford Pickett formerly of Company F. 68th Mo. Colored Infantry, the said
Woodford Pickett <sup>aged 59</sup> being duly sworn, deposes and saith:

That on the 9th day of April, 1865 (and before that time) he was a member of Company F. (Cap't Norwood) 68th Mo. Colored Infantry (Col. William Jones ): that between the hours of 3 P.M. and 8 P.M. of that day he was, with his company, stationed on the right wing of the army attacking Fort Blakely, Alabama: that during the second charge made between the hours named, he was wounded by a ball striking him on the outside of the left leg, about half way between the ankle and the knee and following the bone round for a short distance, was taken out by the regimental surgeon
Dr. Lightfoot or one of similar name.

Since that time he has been troubled with a chronic ulcer, caused by this wound, at the spot indicated, which has incapacitated him for hard labor.

Affiant further states that in making any previous statements regarding this matter, it has been his intention to make a complete explanation of the wound causing the ulcer, but being unable to read or write was not aware that it had not been fully made.

Witness.
